Residential Care Matters™

Foundations for best practice in children's homes

Residential Care Matters (RCM) is a training programme for support workers in children's homes.

The RCM programme is designed to improve the consistency and quality of care as well as workforce morale.

- Two ways to get RCM training; self-delivery package or our expert trainers come to you.
- Developed by professionals with expertise in social care, social work and frontline experience of working in children's homes.
- 7 courses, 20 modules (each 2.5 hrs long) covering everyday topics that can be adapted to suit your organisation.
- Programme includes 280+ pages of support materials – Lesson Plan Guides, PowerPoint presentations, Practice Guides, Certificates & Evaluation Forms.
- Upon completion participants will receive a certificate for each of the 7 courses (20 modules).
- Courses are jargon-free with concise key messages that residential care workers will identify with.
- Provides a practice framework and common 'value base' for both staff teams and managers.
- Annual content updates available.
